

Preventing Extremism and Tackling Radicalisation in Schools

25th May 2016, London

09:00 – 09:30	Registration and refreshments
09:30 – 09:45	Chair's introduction
09:45 – 10:40 Session 1 Legal	Clarify your latest legal duties under The Prevent Agenda and The Counter Terrorism and Security Act 2015: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Understand and meet your latest duties to prevent pupils being drawn into terrorism - Clarify what you are now legally required to report and how you will be held to account - Gain legal guidance on what action you need to take now to ensure compliance Dai Durbridge, Partner, Browne Jacobson
10:40 – 11:25 Session 2 Model Policies	Robust, fit-for-purpose policies to prevent and respond appropriately to radicalisation and extremism in your school or college <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Model policies – gain a comprehensive checklist of what you need to include in your school's anti-extremism policy - Take part in a vital case study discussion and take away a model policy for your school - Ensure your policies are in line with Ofsted's expectations to ensure you are correctly managing extremist views Dai Durbridge, Partner, Browne Jacobson
11:25 – 11:30	Questions
11:30 – 11:45	Morning Refreshments
11:45 – 12:30 Session 3 'British Values'	Preventing extremism and safeguarding against radicalisation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - 'British Values' – practical guidance to successfully embed 'British values' across your whole school - How to promote and encourage acceptance of 'British values' through effective discussions and activities - Case study: How to ensure positive values permeate your school's culture and are actively and consistently sustained Matt Miller, National Leader of Governance Advocate
12:30 – 13:15	Lunch
13:15 – 14:00 Session 4 Reacting and Responding	Recognising the signs and responding to radicalisation: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Assessing risk – what are the signs of extremism and radicalisation in children and young people and what will you need to report - How to identify students at risk of exploitation by extremist or terrorist ideologues - Reporting concerns – when, how and where should you report concerns about extremism and radicalisation amongst your pupils
14:00 – 14:45 Session 5 Resilience	Build resilience and develop self-esteem to safeguard pupils against extremism <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Practical strategies to successfully build resilience in your vulnerable pupils to help prevent exploitation - Gain proven methods to build pupils' confidence and sense of belonging to help combat extremist thinking as a dangerous coping mechanism
14:45 – 15:00	Afternoon Refreshments