

Leading Safeguarding

Managing safeguarding with rigour and confidence at every stage
Five modules from Thursday 11 June to Wednesday 17 June

Module 1: Lessons from multi-agency working – Thursday 11 June

When safeguarding goes wrong

An evaluation of a recent serious case review, the impact on safeguarding within schools, and the implications for multi-agency working

Michael Spellman, Lecturer at Staffordshire University, retired Detective Inspector

Practical lessons for schools on multi-agency working

Kevin Crompton, Independent Scrutineer for Gloucestershire

Module 2: Digital safeguarding - Friday 12 June

Social media and online safeguarding

Understand online risks and how to equip your students to navigate their digital worlds critically and safely

Alan Mackenzie, E-safety adviser

What would you do?

Discuss how to manage practical case studies with other safeguarding leads and identify your networks of support. Opportunity to submit anonymous cases before by email to conference producer.

Dai Durbridge, Partner, Browne Jacobson LLP

Module 3: Record-keeping and wellbeing – Monday 15 June

Getting the most out of your record-keeping

A case study

Staff and DSL wellbeing

Natasha Lawrence, Safeguarding Manager, My Concern

Module 4: Early Help and hard to reach families - Tuesday 16 June

Vulnerable Children

Identify and support vulnerable children and overcome the barriers to working with hard to reach families

Ella Savell-Boss, Safeguarding Consultant

Your safeguarding questions

Dai Durbridge, Partner, Browne Jacobson LLP and Ella Savell-Boss, Safeguarding Consultant

Module 5: Trauma and the toxic trio – Wednesday 17 June

Trauma

Understand how trauma affects the brain and gain practical strategies to help children cope with adverse childhood experiences

Shahana Knight, TPC Therapy

Toxic Trio

Gain tools to support children living with domestic violence, substance abuse or parental mental ill-health

Amy Hewitt, Practice Adviser, Safe Lives