

SEND Leadership

Maximise your impact as an informed, empowered and collaborative leader of SEND

Digitally delivered across two morning modules

31 January, 09:00 – 11:30 GMT

7 February, 09:00 – 11:30 GMT

Expert speakers include:

Gary Aubin

SEND Consultant and MAT Director of SEND

Ginny Bootman

Special Needs Co-ordinator

Nina Jackson

SEND, Mental Health and Wellbeing Consultant

Natalie Packer

Education Consultant, SEND

KEY BENEFITS

LEADERSHIP

Lead with confidence to empower your colleagues

COLLABORATION

Communicate and learn from different perspectives

KNOWLEDGE

Expand your understanding of the current SEND landscape

WHY IS THIS CONFERENCE RELEVANT?

4% of pupils now have an EHC plan and 12.6% require SEN support.

Gov.uk, June 22

With increasing need year-on-year, confident and innovative SEND leadership is a necessity to ensure high quality and inclusive provision for all your SEND pupils.

Our online SEND Leadership conference will give you a programme packed full of useful and thought-provoking content. Take away strategies to enhance and improve the quality of provision you are offering to your students, enabling them to thrive in their school environment and beyond. Gain practical solutions and resources over the course of two interactive morning modules to reflect, adapt and improve your collaborative practice, whilst re-focusing on the rewards of a whole-school SEND culture that facilitates high quality teaching to all.

UPDATE: refresh your understanding of the current issues facing SEND education, with an eye on the possible changes arising from the SEND green paper.

PRACTICAL TOOLS: take away useful strategies that you can establish within your setting.

WORK IN PARTNERSHIP: improve working relationships with all key stakeholders to support the growth of your learners.

BOOK TODAY

oego.co/send23-book-now

Module 1: Tuesday 31 January, 09:00 – 11:30 GMT

We are delighted to announce that the morning will be chaired by Natalie Packer.

Looking forward (09:00)

Update your SEND policy knowledge, hear about next steps with the Green Paper and understand the current landscape with an eye on the future

Natalie Packer, Education Consultant, SEND

Time saving strategies (09:45)

Manage your workload more effectively with digital tips and tricks

Ginny Bootman, Special Needs Co-ordinator

Recognise SEND early (10:10)

Identify obstacles to learning to ensure early intervention

Victoria Nunn, SENDCO, SEND Consultant and Researcher

Collaborative practice (10:40)

How can mainstream, specialist and alternative provision learn from each other to offer the best to young learners with SEND?

Module 2: Tuesday 7 February, 09:00 – 11:30 GMT

We are delighted to confirm this module will be chaired by Nina Jackson.

SEND culture (09:00)

Develop a whole-school approach to SEND with high-quality teaching

Gary Aubin, SEND Consultant and MAT Director of SEND

Get the most from your funding (09:45)

Explore creative ways of managing budgets and funding

Simon Tanner, National Director of SEND at E-ACT Trust, Co chair of the MAT Leaders SEND Group

Transition and communication (10:10)

Ensure smooth transition within and between schools and build SEND learners' confidence and wellbeing

Improve your SEMH support (10:40)

Recognise and respond to SEMH issues to support SEN learners

Nina Jackson, SEND, Mental Health and Wellbeing Consultant

BOOK TODAY

oego.co/send23-book-now

‘It was so great to hear ideas and strategies both from experts and other SENCOs in school.’

‘I came away feeling empowered and more positive about what I want to achieve in my own school’

INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL DELEGATE

‘Informative, helpful, packed with resources.’

VICE PRINCIPAL AND ACTING SENCO, CITY OF LONDON ACADEMY
HIGHGATE HILL

PRICING

Your digital conference place includes access to both mornings’ live training, a full set of recordings and wraparound content.

	Price:
All school types	£199 + VAT

For more information please visit the website, contact us on 020 8315 1506 or email oe.conferences@optimus-education.com